"There's all sorts of things going on—it's hard to keep up with it all, but you just do whatever you're interested in. My wife is in aged care now. It's good that we can still be close and see each other every day and enjoy meals together. I've got everything I want here."

The man is positioned on the right side of the frame, looking down at the plants. The background shows a white fence and more greenery, creating a sense of a well-maintained outdoor space.
